OUR MOTTO

“Let’s march hand in hand.”

SC/ST Students Welfare Cell of Dulhajan Girls' College was formed in the year 2013. The sole motive of the cell is to bring the students of these classes of society at par with the mainstream student body. The cell works in conjunction with other existing cells of the college to fulfill the following objectives:

Objectives of the Cell:

- To provide assistance to the SC/ST Students by organizing career counseling and personality development programme, holding spoken English classes and undertaking remedial as well as tutorial classes for them.
- To provide facilities and opportunities to take part in different cultural programmes organized in the college from time to time to showcase their talents.
- To offer platform for different sports activities.
- To organize awareness programme on available government policy prescriptions/schemes focusing on the welfare of the community.
- To address the complains of caste discrimination lodged by SC/ST Students.
- To provide necessary information with regards various scholarship programmes of State/Central/Local bodies for SC/ST Students.
- To undertake special interest and measures to offer financial assistance/hostel facilities/book facilities.
- To create a database of all the students belonging to SC/ST classes.
